IRONMAN® WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

Official Results Guide 2013

Top Three Men

FREDERIK VAN LIERDE

Belgium • 08:12:29

A third place finish in 2012 and three IRONMAN France wins served as notice that the 35-year-old was ready to capture a world champion title. Following in the footsteps of his coach and countryman, Luc Van Lierde, Frederik became the second Belgian IRONMAN World Champion in the event's history.

LUKE MCKENZIE

Australia • 08:15:19

The six-time IRONMAN Champion made a bold statement that he would be a contender in Kona with an impressive win at IRONMAN Cairns earlier this year. McKenzie surged to the front of the race early in the marathon, only to be passed heading into the famed Natural Energy Lab by eventual champion, Frederik Van Lierde. His runner-up finish, though, was the performance of a lifetime for the 32-year-old who competed in his first triathlon in 1994.

SEBASTIAN KIENLE

Germany • 08:19:24

The two-time IRONMAN 70.3 World Champion finished fourth in 2012 and moved up one position on the podium at this year's 35th anniversary event. Building on the German tradition of strong cyclists, Kienle continues to improve in the water and on the run, making him a likely contender in Kona for many years to come.

Top Three Women

MIRINDA CARFRAE

Australia • 08:52:14

The 2010 IRONMAN World Champion proved her first win was no fluke with a record-setting performance that included the third fastest run split overall (2:50:39) and a new course record (8:52:14). Carfrae becomes only the second Australian woman to win in Kona, and the fourth multiple champion from down under.

Carfrae will further celebrate today's win when she weds fellow pro and today's fifth-place finisher, Tim O'Donnell in two months.

RACHEL JOYCE

Great Britain • 08:57:28

Spanning a three-year period, the 2013 IRONMAN Texas Champion finished sixth, fifth and fourth here in Kona. Sickness waylaid that steady progression last year, but she simply skipped a third place finish and moved right to second. The 35-year-old led for much of the marathon today, but wasn't able to hold off the speedy Mirinda Carfrae during the final stretch of the marathon.

LIZ BLATCHFORD

Great Britain • 09:03:35

A former short-course specialist, Blatchford burst onto the IRONMAN scene this year with a win at IRONMAN Cairns and IRONMAN 70.3 Busselton. A fourth-place finish at IRONMAN Mont-Tremblant also enabled the 33-year-old to compete in Kona, where she demonstrated her talent with an impressive podium-finish debut.

IRONMAN® WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

Hope is our willpower and waypower in our lives. It is our beacon to achieving our goals and fulfilling our dreams. No matter what our journey holds – hope gives us the strength to dream, to carry on and to evolve.

Kupuna Elizabeth Maluichi Ako Lee, one of Hawaii's Living Treasures, teaches us to embrace the values of Hawaii: aloha, pono and mālama (love, righteousness and care) and reminds us that we will never lose our way as long as we remember where we came from.

The theme of the 35th IRONMAN® World Championship is a symbol of hope:

“Mohala i ka wai ka maka o ka pua”

“Unfolded by the water are the faces of the flowers”

Flowers thrive where there is water, the way people thrive when nurtured by aloha, pono and mālama. As a new Lehua flower unfolds and shows its beauty, we too unfold and evolve, inspiring hope in our journey and in our lives.

As we move forward along our journey and celebrate the 35th Anniversary at the 2013 IRONMAN® World Championship, reflect on your past and your present and pursue your dreams with anticipation and hope.

OCTOBER 12 | 2013

The artistic interpretation of Mohala i ka wai ka maka o ka pua were created by Alike Ho`omana:

- Lehua Flower – Blooms on the `Ōhi`a tree, it is Hawaii's official flower, representing hope.
- Aniata – Always remember your past, reflecting on the first born, the first warrior.
- Pikapika o ka He`e/Kapua`i – Squid representing holding on; grasping for knowledge and strength from your footprint, the path you have chosen.
- Noio – representing our search for new beginnings.
- Hala (fruit) `Ulu (inside of the breadfruit) – representing growth.
- Lauhala – the Pandanus leaf is woven tightly together, representing `Ohana (family), where everything begins.
- Wai (water) – everything is nurtured from water.
- Polynesian Cross – Kāne, Kū, Lono, Kanaloa – representing unity and how we are all connected.
- Lei Pō`o – representing a crowning of royalty.
- Aloha – representing love and compassion.
- Nā Mauna – The Five Mountains of Hawai'i Island – Kohala, Mauna Kea, Mauna Loa, Hualālai and Kilauea.

On an island renowned for tough conditions, this year's GoPro IRONMAN World Championship was, well, not so tough. Relatively cool temperatures and calm winds made for a record day in Hawai'i. It wasn't only the pros who took advantage of the optimal Kona conditions – unprecedented age group performances were the name of the day, too. How fast was the 2013 GoPro IRONMAN World Championship? In 2012, 109 athletes finished in under 9:30. In 2013? 251 athletes.

HERE ARE A FEW MORE SPECTACULAR STATS:

Milos Kostic won his seventh consecutive IRONMAN World Championship title today in the men's 70-74 category. The Canadian went 12:03:38, continuing his unbeaten streak on the island.

Belgium's Christian Bodson dominated the men's 55-59 division with his blistering time of 9:18:18, winning by more than 30 minutes.

Kyle Buckingham had a dream day with his 8:37:26 time. The South African not only won his age group (men 30-34), he was also the first age group finisher and placed 16th overall.

Canada's Beverly Watson won the women's 60-64 division thanks to an 11:50:41 finish time.

Great Britain's Catherine Faux had a blazing 9:15:16 in the women's 25-29 age group, which made her the fastest age group women of the day.

Two-time Super Bowl Champ, Hines Ward traded his spiked shoes for racing flats on his IRONMAN journey and stopped the clock in 13:08:09. The former NFL player swam a 1:20:01, biked a 6:21:12 and capped off his day with a 5:12:56 marathon run to complete his one year venture under the guidance and watchful eye eight-time IRONMAN World Champion, Paula Newby-Fraser.

Master chef Gordon Ramsay exchanged his fiery kitchen for the lava fields in his quest to become an IRONMAN. In his first attempt at the distance, Ramsay put together a 1:21:20 swim split, pedaled to a 6:35:54 bike and paced out the marathon in 5:48:31 for a 14:04:48 clocking.

Mexico's Luis Alvarez successfully completed his 100th IRONMAN race in 15:54:50. His son also participated with a time of 15:54:59.
